

IRSM Volunteer Welcome Sheet

Thank you for partnering with IRSM in the effort to equip women across the Americas. Here is a brief list of the first steps you can take to get familiar with the ministry, learn what resources we have available, and the areas in which you can put your talents into action. Please know that our team is praying for you!

Subscribe to the Iron Rose Sister Ministries Blog, eNews, and Social Media

- Subscribe through our website IronRoseSister.com/Resources/Blog to receive our weekly blog post in which IRSM staff and volunteers share on a monthly theme, equipping and encouraging women to connect to God and one another more deeply.
- Send an email to info@ironrosesister.com to subscribe to our eNews and to stay up to date on what God is doing through us in English, Spanish, and Portuguese across the Americas.
- Click and follow our social media pages for ministry updates and encouragement.

Explore IronRoseSister.com

- Check out the Resources section for free video, audio, and written resources to use for personal growth or as a tool for small groups. You can also see more about partnering with IRSM for in-person or virtual events at your congregation or a mission point you support.
- On the Donate page, you can help us spread the word about the opportunity to partner with IRSM financially.
- Go to the Store to see our interactive small group Bible study books available for sale. Our books are a great resource to use in your congregation for women who long to be equipped to connect to God and other women. You can also Buy One, Gift One and we will share a book with a sister in Latin America.
